INJUNCTION TO BE DROPPED IF DETOUR FIXED

City Promises to Put the East End Road in Good Shape.

IS VERY BAD NOW

Many Cars Damaged Going Through Now — City Pulls Out in Daytime, But No Provisions for Night.

That terms will be agreed upon between the East End engineers and the city and construction company representatives is soon expected. This morning it was indicated by all parties that the business men and residents of the proposed enclosed section would accept the proposition of the city to repair the detour rather than erect a temporary bridge.

I. G. Leabow, attorney for the engineers, stated this morning that this would be agreeable to his clients; J.
B. Coleman, one of the petitioners, stated that he would agree to those terms. The present status of the injunction will not be changed, however, until the detour is repaired by the city, Mr. Leabow stated.

Commissioner J. E. Evans proposed to put about three or four carloads of limestone or whatever amount is necessary and make Twelfth street to Anthony, thence to Fourteenth street and down to Cumberland avenue, a good temporary route.

The condition of the detour at present is reported very bad. Though the city hires teamsters to pull cars through during the day, those passing in the evening, and this includes many visitors and tourists, are compelled to pay this expense. Many cars have been damaged in trying to pass the place.

ADMIT PRESENCE AT DINES' SHOOTING

Kentucky Man Believed to Have Leaped Off California Pier, Found.

LOS ANGELES, May 29.—W. C.
Goad, 20 years old, attorney, Scotts-ville, Ky., who was found in Los Angeles Monday after a companion had died the police he had jumped to his death in the sea, admitted yesterday that he had been standing in front of the apartment of Courtland S. Dines, millionaire oil man and clubman, when he later is said to have been shot by H. Vinslow, chauffeur for Dines.
Goad, however, he said he had seen nothing of the act attributed to Greer.

He had been conducting a long search for Goad in an effort to throw light on the Dines shooting. Goad, according to a dispatch from Scotts-ville, Ky., left that city six months ago or the west for his health and was accompanied by his wife, who formerly was Miss Brownie Swain, a music teacher.

Questioned by the police, Goad explained his disappearance from a party of friends which had resulted in H.
Vinslow, Los Angeles, telling the police of the supposed "death leap." Vinslow said Goad and Miss Eloise E.
Bell of St. Louis, a companion following a trip on the ocean in a launch had unaccounted and Goad had later disappeared at the end of the Pine Avenue pier.

Goad said everyone in the party had been drifting heavily and during the luncheon he became so angry that he decided to sneak away from the others.
When his absence was noticed Miss Bell believed he had leaped off the pier into the ocean and screamed in alarm and fainting, Goad said.

Twenty Applicants to C. M. T. From Here About twenty applicants have been secured for the Citizens Military Training camp which begins at Camp Knox in July, according to Lieut. D.
W. Sanders, who is receiving applications from boys in this vicinity. He expects to get about 100 boys for the free training course this summer.

The following boys from Camberland Gap have recently signed applications for entrance to the camp:
P. F. Farmer, Andy Southern, Earl Cranshaw, Clay Fortner and Clyde Winters.

Louisville Live Stock
Cattle, 200, slow; hogs, 1800,

LANGLEY CANDIDATE

Convicted Congressman To Seek Renomination
By Associated Press.
HAZARD, May 29.—Congressman John Langley by wire today requested local newspapers to announce his candidacy for re-nomination for Congress. He was recently convicted in Federal Court on charges in connection with an alleged conspiracy to violate prohibition laws and is now out on bail pending appeal.

FOSDICK MUST EMBRACE FAITH

Baptist Minister Must Become Presbyterian to Stay in His Pulpit.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 29.— If Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, a Baptist, desires to continue to occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church, New York city, he should either the Presbyterian denomination; if he cannot accept the Presbyterian doctrinal standards, he ought not to continue in a Presbyterian pulpit.

This was the verdict of the 136th general session yesterday. The assembly in adopting a report of its judicial committee after refusing by a majority of 193 votes to review the entire case, made this decision:

"The relationship of Dr. Fosdick to the First church is an anomaly, and a very serious disturbance has resulted because of it. If Dr. Fosdick is to occupy a Presbyterian pulpit he should become a Presbyterian and thus remove much of the cause of irritation. If he cannot, he should no longer preach regularly in a Presbyterian church. The New York presbytery, therefore, is directed to take up with Dr. Fosdick this question to the end that he may determine whether it is his pleasure to enter the Presbyterian church and thus be in regular relationship with the First church of New York as one of its pastors."

The fight over the Fosdick case did not come on the adoption of the commission's report. It centered instead upon an attempt by the fundamentalists to throw the case upon the floor of the assembly.

Dr. Mark Matthews, of Seattle, Wash., pastor of the largest Presbyterian church in the world, precipitated the floor debate by moving that the assembly resolve itself into a supreme court and review the entire case.

When the vote was taken the number favoring review was 311; those opposed to such action mustered 504 votes.

It was an acknowledged blow to the fundamentalists, the first suffered by them on a major matter since the assembly convened a week ago. It was not, however, regarded as so much as a victory for the modernists as for the "middle-of-the-road" faction, which drew strength from both sides.

Another defeat for the fundamentalists came when the assembly voted unanimously against the Philadelphia overture which would have required reaffirmation of faith in the standards of the church by seminary teachers and officials of other agencies of the church.

Columbus, O., was chosen as the place for holding next year's general assembly.

TAX SUPERVISORS MEET NEXT WEEK

Meeting Yesterday Morning Postponed As One Member of Board Was Out of Town.

Indications are that the board of tax supervisors which was scheduled to meet Wednesday morning will not convene before the first of next week.
One member of the board has been out of town this week, this being the reason the meeting was postponed.

The board will be in session in the library room of the city hall for the purpose of examining the city tax books and making any changes deemed necessary. In view of the fact that William Wallbrecht, the assessor, has raised assessment in some sections, it is thought that the board will make few increases.

Property owners whose assessments are increased by the equalization board will be notified in writing to appear before the board. T. H.
Campbell is chairman of the board; Jens Stanley and F. R. Whalin are the other two members.

Community Chest Fund Now Has $14,000 Subscriptions

Fourteen thousand dollars had been collected for the Community Chest at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Indications are that the amount will be much larger as a number of prospective contributors have not been seen by the solicitors.

Donations continue to come in, a number of them from persons who were overlooked or could not be located by the solicitors. W. C. Stair, acting chairman of the campaign, requests those who have not been seen by the workers to bring or send in their contributions. Several substantial donations have been received by mail.

The Chest is still $3,500 short of the goal though this may be made up if every one will do their part. Records show that many men and women who, in all probability, could afford to give have not done so.

Elsewhere is published a list of the contributors and the amounts they have given up to noon today.
Others will be printed as they come in, unless the subscriber wishes it to be published anonymously.

More subscriptions are coming in from time to time. One man today, learning that the drive had not yet gone over, came in to double his subscription, saying that he would have paid more in the first place but he supposed enough funds would be subscribed the first time.

SPECIAL SESSION SOUTH METHODISTS

Meet In Chattanooga July 2, to Consider Proposed Church Union.

By Associated Press.
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 29.— A special session of the M. L. Church South, conference will be held here July 2, according to plans announced by the committee late yesterday afternoon. Plans for unification of two branches of the Methodist church, which were adopted by the Northern Methodist general conference recently will be brought before the meeting.

The meeting will be held in the new million dollar auditorium here.
Other towns asking for this convention were: Nashville, Memphis, Louisville, Jackson, Miss., Junaluska, N. C., Mobile, Ala., Shreveport, La., Springfield, Mo., and Hot Springs, Ark.

Bishops Warren A. Candler, Collins Denny, U. V. M. Darlington and J. E. Dickey dissented to the holding of the special conference.

LOCAL OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY

Girl Scouts, Oddfellows to Decorate Graves — Banks, Postoffice to Close.

Memorial Day tomorrow will be observed in a fitting manner here.
Mrs. H. H. Saunders announces that the Girl Scouts will go to the cemeteries at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and decorate graves. Any one who has flowers for this purpose is invited to send them to Mrs. Saunders apartment before that time.

The Oddfellows will also have a memorial service. Meeting at the hall in the afternoon, they will march to all the local cemeteries where members are buried and decorate the graves. After this is concluded a brief service will be held at the Colson cemetery.

Though a legal holiday, general business will not be suspended here.
The postoffice and banks will observe the day by closing; but business will continue much the same as usual.

QUIZ MAN FOUND IN LOUISVILLE ON FRANKS CASE

Chicago Police See Very Little Grounds For Suspicion.

FORMER DRUGGIST

Instructors Held, Released When Police Find No Cause to Hold Them — Case Still Proves Baffling.

By Associated Press.
LOUISVILLE, May 29.—Police for a time today believed they had a clue to the slayer of Robert Franks, 13 year old son of a Chicago millionaire, when C. F. Heath, Chicago druggist, was taken from an outlying Louisville hotel to a city hospital suffering from poison. The desk sergeant at the police station understood the policeman to the hospital to say that Heath had confessed to implication in the crime.
Heath, however, was unresponsive and made no statement. The policeman merely inferred that because Heath was from Chicago he should be investigated.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Charles F.
Heath, former druggist, watched in a Louisville, Ky., hospital as a suspect in connection with the kidnapping and murder of Robert Franks, disappeared from a hospital here last Monday. He formerly had a drug store two miles from the Franks home. There is no basis for suspicion against Heath in connection with the Franks case, but his not following receipt of a letter to police threatening suicide, supposed to have been sent by the boy's kidnapper, caused detectives to go to the hospital here.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Two instructors of the private school attended by Robert Franks, Chicago school boy, slain while his parents awaited to pay a $10,000 ransom, were freed yesterday on writs of habeas corpus when the police failed to place charges against them.

Investigators admitted last night that the crime is as baffling as when they vanished a week ago today. The next day his nude body was found in a south side swamp.

The instructors were Matt K. Kendall and Walter E. Wilson.
Wilson's landlady also was in custody for a time after a gardener living near her home said he had seen her in the neighborhood of the Franks home, about the time the boy vanished.

PUSH PROSECUTION WARTIME FRAUDS

Attorney General Seeks to Dispose of Cases in One General Clean-up.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 29.—Many pending prosecutions growing out of wartime transactions are to be pressed to quick conclusion under the revised Department of Justice policy announced today by the attorney-general. He said he wanted to have the cases disposed of in a general clean-up. Some of them which involve a total of $50,000,000 are barred by statute limitation while others have but a few months to run when they also will be outlawed.

else in the place of had habits to keep the youth of the town fine and clean.

Dr. Brummett moved, as soon as the speaker concluded, that the work be endorsed. Mr. Brummett seconded him, asking that the matter be taken up "if we have to cut off a policeman to do it." Several others expressed themselves in favor of the matter, and the vote showed all of them were.

R. K. Jindr was chairman of the meeting today. A. D. Campbell drew the prize. Several important announcements were made. W. C. Stair spoke briefly on the Community Chest which, he said, was now 80 per cent subscribed and which he felt confident would soon be over the top.
Judge Evans told of the status of the East End detour which will soon be put in good condition.

A feature of the luncheon today was the entertainment of theletes from the high school, Coach Kilpatrick, Jack Chesney who won the Kiwanis oratorical prize, and the captains of last year's and next year's athletic teams.
The boys were roundly applauded when introduced to the club.

DEFEAT DIVORCE CHANGE

Methodists Favored Legalizing Divorces
By Associated Press.
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 29.—A proposal for a drastic change in the divorce law of the Methodist Episcopal Church which would legalize all marriages except those of guilty parties in divorces for adultery was defeated by ten votes at the closing session of the General Conference here today.

JAPS' PROTEST COMES BY CABLE

Reaches Embassy In Washington Today — Some Time Expected for Decoding It.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 29.—The Japanese protest against the new immigration law reached the Japanese embassy here today by cable. Because of its great length some time will be required to decode it and study it before it will be formally presented to the state department.

TOKIO, May 29.—The cabinet today approved the text of the protest against the provision of the American immigration bill excluding Japanese from that country. The protest will be sent immediately to Ambassador Hanihara, whose return to Japan, when the protest has been dealt with, the cabinet also approved.

The foreign office two days ago cable Ambassador Hanihara permission to return to Japan as soon as Japan's protest against the exclusion provision of the immigration bill, which the cabinet took action on was finally dealt with.

Foreign minister Matusi yesterday asked and obtained the assent of the prime minister, Mr. Tanaka, of the Japanese protest against American enactment of the immigration bill barring Japanese. The proceeding was extraordinary and is interpreted as indicating unusual importance was attached to the document.

The foreign minister went to the imperial palace immediately after the extraordinary cabinet session called yesterday to give final approval to the protest, had ended. The regent sanctioned the protest.

The protest was placed upon the cables for transmission to Ambassador Hanihara at Washington shortly after the foreign ministers had left the imperial palace. The ambassador will deliver it to Secretary of State Hughes. The foreign office announced it would issue a statement at 5:30 p. m.

Former French Amba- sador Dies In London

By Associated Press.
PARIS, May 29.—Pierre Paul Cam-

WOMEN VOTERS ASK STATE HEAD HERE

Local League Meets Yesterday — Seek to Interest More in Citizenship Work.

Mrs. Jessie Leigh Hutchinson, president of the state League of Women Voters, has been invited by the local League to come to Middlesboro some time the first of next month in an endeavor to interest the majority of the women here in the work. A tea, to which the women of the town will be invited, is being planned for the local League, and at this time Mrs.
Hutchinson will speak.

A meeting of the League was held yesterday in the library club rooms with eleven women present. This was the first meeting in several months. The League was reorganized and two new directors, Mrs. F. P.
Seales and Mrs. Jacob Schultz were elected.

The officers of the League now are:
President, Miss Lina Rennebaum; vice-president, Mrs. E. S. Helburn; second vice-president, Mrs. D. G.
Hinks; secretary, Mrs. Warren Rash; treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Gunn; directors, Mrs. J. T. Alderson, Mrs. B. F.
More, Mrs. F. P. Seales and Mrs.
Jacob Schultz.

IMPLICATES UPHAM

Witness Before the Senate Committee Says Funds in Payment Were Turned Over to G. O. P.
Deficit.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 29.—Gaston B. Means told the Senate Daugherty committee today that he had received from Jesse Smith in 1922 certain documents purporting to show that Secretary Mellon had agreed to issue a batch of whiskey withdrawal permits in return for money which was to go toward payment of a deficit of the republican national committee.
The alleged arrangement, the witness said, was with a man named Rex Sheldon who was to receive permits and pay over the money. He added that according to the story, Senator Bursum of New Mexico and Fred Upham, treasurer of the Republican national committee, went to Mellon's office in regard to the matter.

Later, he said, Senator Bursum denied that he had any part in such a plan and said he had sent Sheldon to the Treasury secretary "just as he would any other caller," and without knowing his purpose. Means asserted Secretary Mellon himself told H. L. Scaife, former department of justice man about the arrangement in September, 1922. Afterward, the witness went on, he got a confession from a man named Stevens, bookkeeper for the LaMontaignes in New York "involving Upham and the whole whiskey ring."

TONIGHT SENIOR COMMENCEMENT

Fine Program of Class Talent Planned —School Closes Tomorrow Morning.

Tomorrow morning will mark the close of the city schools for this term.
At 9:30, pupils up to the eighth grade will be dismissed for the summer vacation and will have no more school until September 15.

They will meet at the school building at 8:30 and receive their promotion certificates. After this is finished they will be dismissed. School has already closed so far as the eighth grade is concerned, the final work of these pupils having been finished with their exercises last night.

The seniors will have finished their part of school work this year when they have had their closing exercises tonight. An elaborate program for this has been arranged as follows:

Invocation, Rev. A. B. Reeves.
Music, High School Orchestra.
Salutatory, "The Struggle of Life," Charles Neighbors.
Oration, "Wit and Humor," Rena Moore.
Oration, "Value of Western Irrigation," Henry Billingsley.
Music, Girls' Sextette.
Oration, "Forest Conservation," Wendell Sanders.
Oration, "Opportunity," Gertrude Whits.
Valedictory, "The Power of Fur-pese," Jack Chesney.
Music, Mixed Quartette.

Unusual Rains Flood Streets and Roads

Though Middlesboro people are becoming accustomed to daily and frequent showers, the quantity of rain falling last night and today was evidently above normal.

A veritable deluge threatened to drown the town early this afternoon.
The rain did not last long but when it had finished streets and roads were flooded. Roads in the outlying sections were rushing torrents and city streets and sidewalks were lakes. The corner in front of the R. I. U. office where water has been standing for two days was rendered almost impassable by the depth of water on the street and sidewalks.

Waters of the canal rose to unusual proportions after the hard rain and were still rising at 3 o'clock.
Trees, logs and all kinds of driftwood were floating down the stream. The city had men at the Lethbridge bridge to try to prevent the blocking of drift against the foundations.

CITY SCHOOLS CLOSE TOMORROW

Pupils of Middlesboro city schools will march from the buildings tomorrow for the regular summer vacation. As is always the case, the majority of them will reassemble in September for another term of school, but some in all grades, perhaps, will never attend school again. The twenty-five high school graduates will pursue courses of education through the higher branches or begin the great battle of life prepared as they are.

The importance of remaining in educational institutions as long as possible should be thoroughly impressed on the minds of pupils by their instructors, parents and others old enough to realize the advantages of an education. It is natural for boys and girls, irked by the confinement and discipline of the school room, to have a reluctance toward further training of that kind. Except when circumstances make it imperative they should not be allowed to choose for themselves whether or not they will get a thorough education.

Reliable statistics denoting the advantages of a higher education in business or professional life are not lacking. Men and women who achieve greatness without this training are exceptions and are usually outstanding only because they succeeded in spite of the handicap.

Mention of the coming summer vacation of pupils recalls another condition existing here—the lack of adequate recreational supervisions for boys and girls. Without suggesting any specific remedy we advise that the public, as a whole, take more interest in the leisure time of children which is quite as important as their school training.

REGARDING "REPRESENTATION"

Less and less is the public believing that it has representation in congress. Congress is the legislative body of the representative form of government and as such is supposed to represent the will of the majority. There is little doubt in anybody's mind that congress is functioning as a legislative body but a questioning look lights up the faces of the masses, when one speaks of representation in congress.

There are two kinds of legislative representation. Representation for the majority, which under our system of government is for the country, an class representation or rule by innumerable minorities. No earlier congressional session has been so dominated by class legislation as the present. Selfish demands of individuals and small groups are expeditiously and generously granted while urgent national needs are brushed aside by senators and representatives too busy getting votes for re-election to concern themselves with affairs of national importance.

When it was revealed that lobbying war veterans had secured the passage of the bonus bill by threats of defeat for individual congressmen it was not a damning indictment of the lobbyists. The public is well aware of the tactics of lobbyists and recognizes no contradiction between those offering votes and those refusing votes for an eye or a nay on congressional bills. But the public attitude is quite different toward congressmen who sacrifice their duty to the nation for the empty promises of lobbyists of re-election.

Congressmen who sell their legislative power to class legislation for class votes are, in the public mind, no less guilty of graft and bribery than the public official who sells his influence and power to private interests for the money of those interests. Any senator or representative who bartered his vote for or against the bonus bill for political purposes should be condemned, not the lobbyist who made the sale.

Class legislation is little short of private legislation and the giving away of public property to private interests. As the congressional sessions come and go the public comes more to view than as a process of "robbing Peter to pay Paul," with the public playing the unfortunate role of Peter.

As-o-p's fables had nothing on a vacation letter.

The quickest way to reduce is to get behind with your grocery bill. A small town is a place where they can remember how many husbands every woman has buried.

Easton University has a course in "Use of the telephone," but why go to college to learn to cuss?

About the only safe bet on any election is that one side will be mad about the result.

The only time you can get a picture of a smiling congressman these days is just after he has been declared not guilty.

A policeman in Hollywood, Cal., has inherited a fortune, so at last a cop may see some of Hollywood's night life.

But this college president who is against prohibition never saw a college dance breaking up at three in the morning.

It must be awful to be a candidate and have to travel around the country telling everybody "I have just begun to fight."

Society is becoming so modern it is considered old-fashioned to sit on the front porch without laughing about something.

THE OPEN FORUM

Teachers' Pay
Editor Daily News:—

I have read the letter written by Prof. W. L. Knuckles of Beverly a few days ago in regard to the proceedings of the Bell Fiscal Court a few days ago when it cut the educational department of this county from fifty to forty cents. I have also read the attempted answer of Squire C. G. Smyth of Middlesboro who says that the act will not reduce the school finances any.

This is like putting a man in jail and then saying he can't be put in. There is no use saying it will not be for it is already done.

Some may say: "Why don't teachers educate more?" They can't and they could, what is the use? They are already equal to their pay. There are no more progressive teachers in the state than in Bell county and the educational department, through Supt. Wilson and the county board of education, deserve much credit for their uplift of the schools of this county. But the best teachers are leaving the profession and going where more pay and honor awaits them; using the teaching profession in this state as a stepping stone to higher work.

The home and the school are the foundation of all civilization in any country and when we fail to educate we are verging on the yawning maelstrom of ruin. What causes Kentucky to rank forty-first on the scale of literacy? Just such back-sets as this, lack of good roads and text-books. These are the three main causes of poor schools in this state. The Fiscal Court or no other court has the right to shift the finances which belong to the educational department to any other department. I hope that the parents of the county will protest against such an action and that the Fiscal Court will reconsider the action they have proposed.

Hunt Crows As Sport.
BEATRICE, Neb., May 28.—All Nebraska is hunting crows. B. Bigler of this city has popularized the sport, and in most parts of the state a bounty is paid on dead crows, making the pastime remunerative. Bigler's method of hunting is to use blinds, as in duck hunting, and he has found an imitation of the crow call to be an effective ruse.

EIGHTH GRADE GRADUATION LAST NIGHT

"Windmills of Holland," Clever Operetta, Presented.

72 ARE GRADUATED

Number of Prizes Awarded for Special Excellence — Klutz Speaks On Playgrounds — Play Is Splendid.

"Windmills of Holland," operetta given last night by the eighth grade graduating class was one of the most attractive and best presented plays of the kind ever given here. The exemplary work of the young actors and the graceful steps of the chorus indicated excellent training by the director, Miss Lillian Seay. The clever plot held the interest of the audience as much as the tuneful melodies included in it.

The leads were all splendid and their work would have done credit to actors of far more mature years. Thomas White as the rich Holland farmer and Pauline Carr as his wife, took the older parts very well. Helen Buchanan and Jean Barry, the daughters, were entirely charming. Jack Bellah, the music student, was excellent. Billy Allen, the Dutch hero, and Thomson Bennett, the American hero, probably shared honors as stars of the occasion. The singing, dancing and general appearance of the choruses set off the leads to the best possible advantage.

The choruses were assisted in the last act by a poppy drill composed of the following younger girls dressed as poppies: Lella Rice, Otella Easton, Molly Gloster, Dorothy Caskey, Edna Evans, Ella Adams, Sarah Owsley, Mildred Hurst, Anna Van Beber, Mildred Pridemore, Mary Lee Wilson and Dorothy Euster.

Special credit for the success of the play goes to the Home Economics department where all of the costumes were made under the supervision of Miss Mary W. Sken and to the art department where the stage settings were made under the direction of Miss Barbara Biscaglia.

At the close of the play, Hon. Whitehead Klutz gave an interesting short talk on the community playground work in the interest of which he is now in Middlesboro. He showed that supervised play would develop happiness, health and character in the children.

Supt. J. W. Bradner had charge of presentation of certificates and announcement of prizes. The prize of a set of books given by the Baptist Baraca Class for the best history essay was given Walter Chesney for the boys and Fannie Billingsley for the girls.

The Penmanship prizes follow: Third Grade: Best writer, first, Reva Spangler, in Miss Aven's room; second, Ernest Lawson, in Miss Weber's room. Improvement, first

PASTOR SCHOOL NOW IN SESSION

Ministers of Kentucky-Illinois to Have Instruction at Russellville Institute.

RUSSELLVILLE, May 29.—Specialized training for pastors working in small towns of Kentucky and Illinois and rural communities and the meeting of needs of pastors in large towns and city churches comprise the twofold purpose of the Kentucky-Illinois Pastor's School for Methodist pastors.

Bishop U. V. W. Darling, in charge of the Kentucky, Louisville, Illinois and Western Virginia conferences, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, presiding over opening session of the school, outlined its purpose tonight.

All speakers and instructors at the third annual session at Logan College here, turned over to the attending pastors who will study and enjoy a physical relaxation at the same time from today to July 11, are specialists in their respective fields, the Rev. J. B. Adams, of Louisville, vice president of the board of managers, another speaker, said.

Regular class room sessions began this morning to continue until noon, Wednesday, June 11, it was announced.

The school will be the third of eighteen similar schools to be held throughout the bounds of the denomination during the summer, Dr. Adams explained. The Illinois-Kentucky Pastor's School is under the management of the boards of missions, Sunday school, education, and lay activities of the Kentucky, Louisville and Illinois conferences, in cooperation with the general board of Missions and the general Sunday school board of the M. E. Church, South, he added privately.

Among the instructors, introduced to the assembly by Bishop Darling were: Dr. J. W. Perry, home mission secretary, Nashville; Dr. O. E. Goddard, pastor, First Methodist church, Conway, Ark.; Prof. B. T. Spencer, Kentucky-Wesleyan College, Winchester, Ky.; Dr. James H. Snowden, Western Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh; Rev. Clem Baker, Little Rock, Ark.; Dr. W. A. Taylor, Board of Temperance and Social Welfare, Indianapolis, Ind.; Prof. T. B. Mahany, Hendrix College, Conway, Ark.; Rev. P. F. Adams, Jackson, Ky., and Rev. W. L. Baker, Smithfield, Ky.

WINCHESTER, May 28.—Bishop U. V. W. Darling of Barboursville, W. Va., who was urged by the board of trustees of Kentucky Wesleyan College here, to accept the position as temporary president of the college until a permanent successor to President William Campbell can be found, has telegraphed that he will accept.

A prominent Louisville minister is understood to be the choice of the majority of the board, but before final action can be taken, it will be necessary to join with the Board of Education of the Louisville Conference. The college is in the Kentucky Conference. A meeting of the trustees with the Louisville Conference board is set for June 11.

President Campbell, who resigned to take effect at the close of the scholastic year, is reported to have suffered a severe nervous breakdown and will be unable to attend any of the commencement exercises this week.

League of Voters Also Wants Planks in Both Platforms on Child Labor.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Both major parties at their forthcoming National convention, will be asked by the National League of Women Voters to go on record as favoring American adhesion to the Court of International Justice and participation by the United States in international conference for elimination of the cause of war, and for humanitarian purposes.

The League announced today that it would also seek insertion in the Republican and Democratic platforms of planks recommending enactment of Federal laws for the prohibition of children in industry after adoption and ratification of the child labor amendment, adequate appointments for the home economics women's and children's bureau in the Federal department and support of the merit system as the basis of appointment to offices and of promotion in office.

CLIMAX NEWS

The ice cream supper given last night by the ball team was quite a success. They realized about $75 from the cream, cakes and candy. Miss Fannie Turner got the box of candy for being the prettiest girl in the house.

A. B. Miller and a Mr. Brown showed some pictures after the cream supper. They showed Chevrolet cars from the time they left the ground in the form of ore and the forest in logs until they were driven away from the assembling plants, the finished product.

The local boys took the game from the Middlesboro boys last Sunday, at a score of 3 to 0. They believe they can make the score look even better next time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johns and family and Miss Bertha Johns spent last Sunday with friends and relatives at Day's Mill where several graves were decorated.

Our mine is running much better this week than for several weeks. We are getting in most every day now.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McDonald and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard and son of West Pineville were here Sunday. Miss McDonald has made application for assistant's place in our school.

THE HEIR

By Louise Driscoll

Now all his careful plans are buried deep.
And his affairs are in unskilful hands Of one who greedily seeks love and sleep.
Who eats and rides, but never understands Why this thing should go well or that go ill;
But thinks the wind should gather in the crop,
And only lifts a brimming cup to spill What some one else collected drop by drop.
Now, power buried with him, this man lies Unable to control the destiny Of anything he planned and brought to be, While one with no intelligence denies The worth of all he loved, and wastes what he Wrestled from pain and watched with tired eyes.

Most Richly Colored Annual

Most richly colored of all the annual flowers except the pansy, and having the same velvety quality, is the salpiglossis, something known as painted tongue. It is a handsome annual for beds and beautiful for cutting. It is a near relative of the petunia and a warm weather plant.

It has an unusual characteristic in the wonderful veining and marbling of the flowers, the veins showing a glint of gold, a coloring not seen in other flowers, this sparkle adding brilliancy to the coloring. The salpiglossis is not as generally grown as it deserves because it isn't the easiest of annuals to grow, especially if treated with the same care as the standard sorts.

It needs warmth to grow and has a habit of standing still for a long time after it has been transplanted or after the seed germinate while waiting for the temperature to suit it when it starts sprouting. It is best to sow the seeds where the plants are to grow and thin, them, sowing in the warm days of May. Once established, it often self-sows, the seeds waiting, like portulaca, until the weather is warm enough to suit them when they germinate and come along rapidly. The large trumpet-shaped blooms are airy poised, giving the plant a graceful character.

Hybridizers have greatly improved this plant, doubling the size of the bloom in modern strains as compared with the older varieties. The glorioxa flowered type is one of the finest, with remarkable veining and markings. The Emperor type is another extra robust form of this valuable plant.

VILLAGE WILL BE BUILT TO THE MEMORY OF SARAH BARNHARDT

PARIS, May 28.—The idea mooted a year ago of building a village to bear the name of Sarah Barnhardt is now going to be carried out by the organization known as the Renaissance des Cités, which has done a great deal of reconstruction work in the devastated regions. The Sarah Barnhardt village will be erected on an ideal site south of Paris, between the Charillon plateau and the Fontenay valley, at present aglow with lilacs. M. Pierre Sardou, the son of Victoria Sardou, Sarah Barnhardt's favorite author, who wrote several plays for her, has been entrusted with the work of construction. A number of eminent people are associated with the scheme.

The propaganda committee is presided over by M. Henri Bergson, the philosopher, and its members include M. Bokanowski, minister of marine, and the Marquis de Castellane. For the foundation of the village the Renaissance des Cités has given the cheap dwelling office has given the Renaissance des Cités a first credit of nearly 4,000,000 francs. The house, which will contain from four to six rooms, are destined for intellectual workers, artists and writers, and the rents will be fixed at from 1,500 francs to 2,000 francs a year. Those who are associated with the enterprise are so confident of its success that they are meditating other schemes. In these days of overcrowding and tremendously high rents the construction of model villages and picturesque surroundings within easy reach of Paris will be welcomed by thousands of people who are forced to lead a makeshift existence from the point of view of accommodations.

JOLIET, May 29.—Floating down the Chicago drainage canal and the Illinois river, a modern Louis Joliet, accompanied by Father Marquette and his voyageurs, will be greeted when he lands June 18 at the city bearing his name, by a pageant of more than 1,000 actors, given in commemoration of the landing of the original Joliet here 250 years ago.

The week of June 16 to 22 is to be devoted to a celebration of Joliet's exploration and discovery of the site of this city.

Although the trip down the Chicago canal and river will not follow accurately the original exploration trip of Joliet and Marquette, it may follow the route taken by the famous explorer a year later in returning to the Illinois country.

The scout cruiser Detroit at maximum speed could cross the Atlantic from New York to Liverpool in 80 hours.
